CONTENTS

CHAPTER ONE: INTRODUCTION
1.1 BACKGROUND: MOTIVATION FOR STUDY ......................... 1
1.2 DEFINITIONS .................................................................. 6
1.3 ABBREVIATIONS USED IN THE STUDY ......................... 6
1.4 DESCRIPTION OF CHAPTERS ......................................... 7
1.5 SUMMARY OF CHAPTER ONE ........................................ 7

CHAPTER TWO: READING AND LISTENING COMPREHENSION
IN PRIMARY SCHOOL CHILDREN
2.1 INTRODUCTION .......................................................... 8
2.2 MODELS OF LISTENING AND READING COMPREHENSION .... 10
2.3 FACTORS AFFECTING THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN
LISTENING AND READING COMPREHENSION ..................... 18
2.4 DIFFERENCES AND SIMILARITIES BETWEEN LISTENING
AND READING COMPREHENSION ...................................... 22
2.5 CONTROVERSIES IN THE LITERATURE .......................... 25
2.6 AUDITORY AND VISUAL PROCESSING FACTORS .............. 28
2.7 PREDICTIVE FACTORS OF READING COMPETENCE .......... 29
2.8 PATTERNS OF POOR READING ABILITY ....................... 33
2.9 FURTHER THEORETICAL CONSIDERATIONS .................. 36
2.10 SUMMARY OF CHAPTER TWO ..................................... 39

CHAPTER THREE: THE ASSESSMENT OF READING AND LISTENING COMPREHENSION
3.1 INTRODUCTION .......................................................... 40
3.2 SOCIO-CULTURAL FACTORS ......................................... 41
3.3 ISOLATED SKILLS ...................................................... 42
3.4 PREDICTIVE VALUE .................................................... 43
3.5 METHODS OF TESTING ............................................... 44
3.6 PROBLEMS IN TESTING........................................ 49
3.7 SUMMARY OF CHAPTER THREE............................... 50

CHAPTER FOUR: METHODOLOGY
4.1 INTRODUCTION.............................................. 51
4.2 AIMS, SUB-AIMS AND HYPOTHESES.......................... 51
  4.2.1 Aim............................................... 51
  4.2.2 Subaims of the study.............................. 51
  4.2.3 Hypotheses....................................... 52
4.3 RESEARCH DESIGN......................................... 52
4.4 SUBJECTS.................................................. 53
  4.4.1 Selection criteria.................................. 53
  4.4.2 Description of subjects............................ 54
4.5 PILOT STUDY............................................... 55
4.6 MEASURING INSTRUMENTS................................... 58
4.7 PROCEDURES AND APPARATUS............................... 62
  4.7.1 Testing environment.............................. 62
  4.7.2 Data collection.................................. 63
4.8 DATA ANALYSIS............................................ 65
  4.8.1 Statistical analyses.............................. 65
4.9 SUMMARY OF CHAPTER FOUR................................ 66

CHAPTER FIVE: RESULTS AND DISCUSSION
5.1 INTRODUCTION.............................................. 67
5.2 OVERVIEW OF LISTENING AND READING COMPREHENSION
  ON HSRC AND SVT TESTS................................... 68
5.3 DETAILED ANALYSIS OF RESULTS FOR WHOLE GROUP AND
  BY STANDARD.............................................. 69
  5.3.1 Introduction...................................... 69
  5.3.2 Comparison of listening and reading scores
        across the whole group on HSRC tests............. 70
5.3.3 Comparison of listening and reading scores across the whole group on SVT tests........ 72
5.3.4 Comparison of listening and reading scores on HSRC tests in standard 2,3,4 groups....... 73
5.3.5 Comparison of listening and reading scores on SVT tests in standard 2,3, and 4 groups..... 76
5.3.6 Correlation between scores....................... 81
5.4 COMPARISON BETWEEN HSRC AND SVT TESTS.................. 82
5.4.1 Comparison of HSRC and SVT tests across whole group........................................ 82
5.4.2 Comparison of HSRC and SVT listening tests in standard 2, 3, and 4 groups............... 85
5.4.3 Comparison of HSRC and SVT reading tests in std 2, 3, and 4 groups........................ 87
5.5 COMPARING TYPES OF ERRORS MADE ON THE SVT TESTS...... 89
5.6 COMPARISON BETWEEN ENGLISH MARKS, HSRC AND SVT SCORES....................................... 93
5.7 SUMMARY OF CHAPTER FIVE................................. 96

CHAPTER SIX: INTEGRATION, CONCLUSIONS AND IMPLICATIONS
6.1 INTRODUCTION............................................. 98
6.2 INTEGRATION OF MAIN FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS......... 99
   6.2.1 Comparison of listening and reading comprehension................................. 99
   6.2.2 Developmental aspects of listening and reading........................................... 103
   6.2.3 Comparison of HSRC and SVT tests......................................................... 105
6.3 LIMITATIONS OF THE STUDY.................................. 108
6.4 IMPLICATIONS FOR CLINICAL PRACTICE.......................... 108
6.5 FUTURE RESEARCH............................................. 112
6.6 SUMMARY OF CHAPTER SIX..................................... 114
